

Persuasive

Let's try again, if you didn't finish yesterday's learning you can go on with that. But if you did finish you can start today's learning.

Hello little G6 Crew.

Day 2: I hope you are loving being at home with your families.

Let's have another go at planning and persuasive.

- 1) Talk about play. Do you like to play indoors or outdoors? I know I like to do both but I love when I get to go outside. But I also love to play PS5. What do you like to do best? With and and where? Talk to your family or write your ideas down maybe draw a picture.
- 2) Read the worksheet below about if playing indoors or outdoors is better. Maybe get someone to help you or contact Miss Jaimee if you can.
- 3) Fill in the worksheet below. It's ok to use ideas that you read about in the writing piece. It's also ok to ask your family for help.
- 4) To finish draw a picture of your favourite place to play. You could take a photo of your favourite place if its in your house or your backyard.

If you cannot write on the computer you can print the sheet or write the answers in your book.

Outdoor Play is Better Than Indoor Play

Reasons For

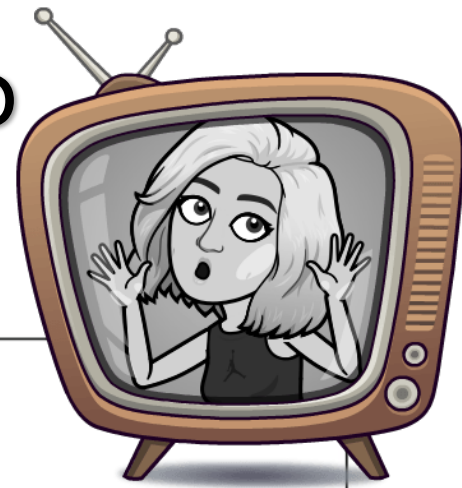

- There is plenty of space outdoors to run around and exercise while playing.
- Outdoor play exposes children to fresh air and sunshine.
- Outdoor play provides opportunities to solve real-life problems.
- Outdoor play allows children to interact with nature.
- Any game can be played outside, which encourages the use of imagination.

Reasons Against

- Indoors is a comfortable and safe environment for play.
- Indoor play cannot be interrupted by factors such as bad weather or insects.
- Some activities, such as art and craft, are easier to complete indoors.
- Indoor games, such as puzzles and board games, assist brain development.
- Children can mirror and learn life skills during indoor play e.g. cooking.

Indoors or Outdoors?
