Persuasive

Who remembers what a persuasive is? Send Miss Jaimee a message, write it down or talked to your family about it. If your not sure keep reading or maybe discover what it is as a family.
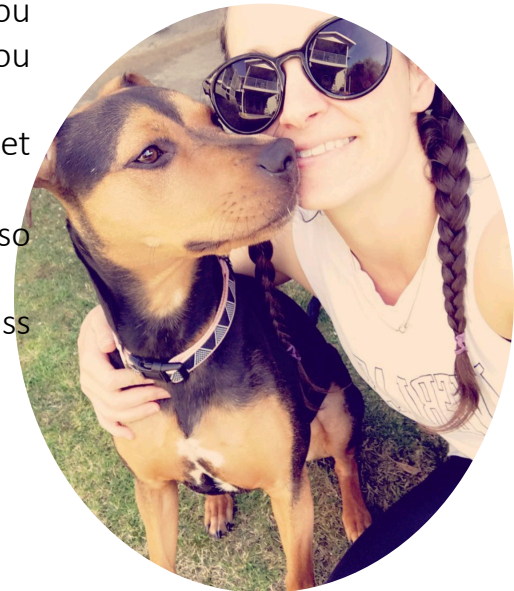

Hello little G6 Crew.

I am hope you are all enjoying this time with you family. I am enjoying my time with my fluffy little dog.

This is our literacy lesson today.

Remember talking about persuasives- you must convince someone of something. As we are still learning to write these I thought we could work together to plan a persuasive.

1) Talk about having a pet. Do you have one? Do you want one? Why do you want one? Talk to you family and draw or write any reasons down. Maybe send Miss Jaimee a message about why you do or don't want a pet.
2) Read the worksheet below about why or why not all families should have a pet. Maybe get someone to help you or contact Miss Jaimee if you can.
3) Fill in the worksheet below. It's ok to use ideas that you read about in the writing piece. It's also ok to ask your family for help. Remember it could be any pet I doesn't not have to be a dog.
4) To finish draw a picture of the pet you have or would like to have. Maybe you could send Miss Jaimee a picture of your pet.

If you cannot write on the computer you can print the sheet or write the answers in your book.

All Families Should Own a Pet

Reasons For

- Owning a pet teaches children to be more responsible.
- Owning a pet helps to reduce loneliness and stress.
- People who own pets are healthier than people who do not.
- Sharing the care of a pet brings families closer together.
- Caring for a pet teaches children how to be loving and affectionate to others.

Reasons Against

- Some families do not have enough money to properly care for a pet.
- Some families do not have enough time to properly care for a pet.
- Some people do not like animals, or may be allergic to them.
- Some pets have diseases which they can pass on to humans.
- Animals do not belong in people's homes; they belong in the wild.
